

Curriculum vitae - Javier Aragón-Sánchez

Dr. Javier Aragón-Sánchez is a General Surgeon. He is the Head of Department of Surgery and Diabetic Foot Unit of La Paloma Hospital in Las Palmas de Gran Canaria (Spain).

He is the vice chairman of the Diabetic Foot Study Group on behalf of the Spanish Diabetes Association. He is also member of and European Diabetic Foot Study Group on behalf of EASD and corresponding members of the IWGDF on Infection 2011.

Assistant lecturer in the Health Science School of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria University and Nursing Department, Complutense University, Madrid.

He is author of two Spanish textbooks and several chapters in other textbooks and monographs dealing with diabetic foot problems and author of many peer-review papers.

His main research field is diabetic foot infections.